Assignment Notes

1. Late assignments require instructor authorization. Authorization must be requested prior to the posted due date and will only be given if the inability to meet the due date is directly related to an emergency situation.

2. The assignment information provided below is intended to provide an overview of the graded assignments. Detailed instructions on how to complete and submit each assignment will be provided in the UNIT AGENDAS and COURSE OUTLINE posted on the course web site.

Assignment Overview

Pre-course Requirements Quiz
You should complete the Pre-course Requirements Quiz with a score of 100% prior to beginning your coursework. The purpose of the quiz is to acknowledge your understanding of the course policies, syllabus and other documents. The pre-course requirements and directions for completing the quiz are provided below. As the name implies please complete the Pre-course quiz before the course, however, you may begin coursework if you are having technical difficulty, but make sure you complete the Pre-Course quiz ASAP. Contact the instructor or WSU C&IT (http://computing.wayne.edu/Help_Desk/contact_us.php) if you continue to have difficulty.

Chapter Assignments
Each of the 8 units will have questions.(listed in the course schedule in the syllabus). These assignments must be finished in the allotted time frame. If you go over the time frame you must notify the instructor immediately to discuss the problem and possible solutions. Complete the assignments by the due date!!! These questions are posted in the discussion board, and as such are intended to be a discussion. Please pay attention to the flow of the online conversation. It is a good idea to post your initial response early in the week to allow a few days for others to read and respond while reading and responding to your fellow classmates. It is NOT acceptable to only post on Sunday night. It is also NOT acceptable to miss a conversation. These discussions are vital parts of the course and should be treated as such. Even if you miss the deadlines, please post – your contributions can still add to the conversation (and may be eligible for partial credit). Treat the units as on-going conversations. The minimum response is 2 separate posts per unit. However, a ‘conversation’ may require more. Your responses should be ‘meaningful.’ This means that responses of ‘I agree’, ‘me too’, etc are not meaningful. You should raise additional issues, support the argument, offer differing points of view, and otherwise add to the conversation.
Course Requirements
There will be three overall course requirements that will be due in the timeframes listed below.

1. Pro position paper – including References/Bibliography page
2. Con position paper – including References/Bibliography page
   Please pay attention to this assignment – it is due by the end of the semester, the information is in Bb, and you will not be getting weekly reminder of this
3. Participation is based on two factors, primarily observed participation and reflective journals. Observed participation will be calculated the instructor. Observable factors that may affect grades include, but are not limited to, reviewing documents, videos and web pages as assigned, completion of journals, and participation in discussions. Reflective journals will be presented through Blackboard as surveys. There will be two during the semester, one for each of the first two units. The journal must be completed and submitted prior to 11:55pm on the last day the unit is available. For example: if the dates for Unit 1 were January 12-19. The Unit 1 Journal must be submitted by 11:55pm on 1/19. Late journals may not be accepted

Pre-course Requirements
You MUST successfully complete each of the following tasks, in the order presented, before beginning your coursework. If for any reason you are unable to complete these tasks, e-mail your instructor immediately.

1. Access the course web site at http://blackboard.wayne.edu
2. Read the Announcement posted by the instructor
3. Use the navigation bar to access the Course Syllabus.
4. Download the syllabus and read it in its entirety
5. Use the navigation bar to access the Course Information page
6. View the Welcome Presentation
7. Download the most recent version of the Distance Learning Program Guide and review the table of contents to familiarize yourself with the type of information included in this document.
8. Download the Course Study Guide and read it in its entirety
9. Open the document titled “Course Policies” and read it in its entirety
10. Open the document titled “Netiquette” and read it in its entirety
11. Access the Blackboard Tour and view the presentations. Note: if you have seen this presentation before you may skip this task.
12. Access the Readiness Survey, answer each question and review the feedback provided. Note: if you have completed this survey in the past you may skip this task.
13. Access the “Completion of Pre-course Requirements” quiz, respond to each item, save your answers and submit. The purpose of this quiz is to insure that you have completed the tasks listed, that you understand the documents that you have read and to verify that you are ready to begin your coursework. Note: you MUST score 100% on this quiz to begin the coursework.
Plagiarism:
Plagiarism includes copying material (any more than 5 consecutive words) from outside texts or presenting outside information as if it were your own by not crediting authors through citations. It can be deliberate or unintended. If you're in doubt about the use of a source, cite it. Students caught plagiarizing information from other sources will receive a failing grade in the course. University policy states that students can be subject to multiple sanctions, from reprimand to expulsion as a consequence of academic dishonesty. To enforce this policy, all outside references must be submitted with assignments.

Withdrawal Policy
Students who withdraw from a course after the end of the 4th week of class will receive a grade of WP, WF, or WN.

- WP will be awarded if the student is passing the course (based on work due to date) at the time the withdrawal is requested
- WF will be awarded if the student is failing the course (based on work due to date) at the time the withdrawal is requested
- WN will be awarded if no materials have been submitted, and so there is no basis for a grade

Students must submit their withdrawal request on-line through Pipeline. The faculty member must approve the withdrawal request before it becomes final, and students should continue to attend class until they receive notification via email that the withdrawal has been approved. Beginning in Fall 2011, the last day to withdraw will be at the end of the 10th full week of classes. The withdrawal date for courses longer or shorter than the full 15-week terms will be adjusted proportionately.

Attention Students with Disabilities:
If you have a documented disability that requires accommodations, you will need to register with Student Disability Services (SDS) for coordination of your academic accommodations. The Student Disability Services (SDS) office is located at 1600 David Adamany Undergraduate Library in the Student Academic Success Services department. SDS telephone number is 313-577-1851 or 313-577-3365 (TDD only). Once you have your accommodations in place, I will be glad to meet with you privately during my office hours to discuss your special needs. Student Disability Services’ mission is to assist the university in creating an accessible community where students with disabilities have an equal opportunity to fully participate in their educational experience at Wayne State University.

Please be aware that a delay in getting SDS accommodation letters for the current semester may hinder the availability or facilitation of those accommodations in a timely manner. Therefore, it is in your best interest to get your accommodation letters as early in the semester as possible.

Religious Observance Policy:
Because of the extraordinary variety of religious affiliations represented in the University student body and staff, the Wayne State University calendar makes no provision for religious holidays. It is University policy, however, to respect the faith and religious obligations of the individual. Students who find that their classes or examinations involve conflicts with their religious observances are expected to notify their instructors well in advance so that alternative arrangements as suitable as possible may be worked out.
