COURSE ASSIGNMENTS: This is an independent study class and you should only register for it if you know what you plan to do. For one or two credits most students write a term paper on the health topic of their choice. For 1 credit, the term paper should be 12-15 pages (double spaced, 1 inch margins, 12 point font), and include 15-20 credible references. Use APA style. For 2 credits, the paper should be 15-20 pages. If you signed up for 3 credits, you need to have a definite plan.
in mind and all the prerequisite work ready to execute that plan. Contact me ASAP for an appointment to discuss it.

CLASS SCHEDULE: Arranged: You are responsible for keeping in touch with Dr. Fahlman and clearing all aspects of the study with her.

GRADING SYSTEM: The paper will be graded on content, format, grammar and style. Your final grade will reflect both your grade for the paper and your ability to adhere to the schedule.

If you don't understand this assignment, or if you have any questions about how to put together your paper, call me immediately. We can set up an appointment and discuss your options. Select a topic in health that interests you.

Do not wait until the last minute to start working on this project. Too many things can go wrong and you need these credits to graduate.

Accommodations for students: In accordance with university policy, if you have a documented disability and require accommodations to obtain equal access in this course, or are a student athlete and need accommodations, please contact the instructor at the beginning of the semester or when given an assignment for which an accommodation is required.

Students with Disabilities: If you have a documented disability that requires accommodations, you will need to register with Student Disability Services (SDS) for coordination of your academic accommodations. The Student Disability Services (SDS) office is located at 1600 David Adamany Undergraduate Library in the Student Academic Success Services department. SDS telephone number is 313-577-1851 or 313-202-4216 (video phone). Once you have your accommodations in place, I will be glad to meet with you privately during my office hours to discuss your special needs. Student Disability Services’ mission is to assist the university in creating an accessible community where students with disabilities have an equal opportunity to fully participate in their educational experience at Wayne State University.

Please be aware that a delay in getting SDS accommodation letters for the current semester may hinder the availability or facilitation of those accommodations in a timely manner. Therefore, it is in your best interest to get your accommodation letters as early in the semester as possible.

University Policies and Student Handbook: As a student at Wayne State University, you are required to know the policies described in the Student Bulletin. My policies in this course are guided by the policies described in the student handbook. You may access the WSU Student Bulletin at: http://www.bulletins.wayne.edu/ubk-output/index.html
Enrollment: It is the student’s responsibility to ensure proper enrollment in classes. You are advised to review your official class schedule during the first 2 weeks of the semester. Should you identify an error in your class schedule, you should correct it with the registrar. If registration errors are not corrected and you continue to attend and participate in classes for which you are not officially enrolled, you are advised now that you will not receive a grade at the end of the semester.

Course Drops and Withdrawals: In the first two weeks of the (full) term, students can drop this class and receive 100% tuition and course fee cancellation. After the end of the second week there is no tuition or fee cancellation. Students who wish to withdraw from the class can initiate a withdrawal request on Pipeline. You will receive a transcript notation of WP (passing), WF (failing), or WN (no graded work) at the time of withdrawal. No withdrawals can be initiated after the end of the tenth week. Students enrolled in the 10th week and beyond will receive a grade. Because withdrawing from courses may have negative academic and financial consequences, students considering course withdrawal should make sure they fully understand all the consequences before taking this step. More information on this can be found at: http://www.bulletins.wayne.edu/gbk-output/index.html
Withdrawals can be requested at any point from the fifth week of class through the tenth week of classes.

Academic Dishonesty/Plagiarism
Academic Dishonesty -- Plagiarism and Cheating (edited statement from the DOSO’s website): Academic misbehavior means any activity that tends to compromise the academic integrity of the institution or subvert the education process. All forms of academic misbehavior are prohibited at Wayne State University, as outlined in the Student Code of Conduct. Students who commit or assist in committing dishonest acts are subject to downgrading (to a failing grade for the test, paper, or other course-related activity in question, or for the entire course) and/or additional sanctions as described in the Student Code of Conduct.

- Cheating: Intentionally using or attempting to use, or intentionally providing or attempting to provide, unauthorized materials, information or assistance in any academic exercise. Examples include: (a) copying from another student’s test paper; (b) allowing another student to copy from a test paper; (c) using unauthorized material such as a "cheat sheet" during an exam.
- Fabrication: Intentional and unauthorized falsification of any information or citation. Examples include: (a) citation of information not taken from the source indicated; (b) listing sources in a bibliography not used in a research paper.
- Plagiarism: To take and use another’s words or ideas as one’s own. Examples include: (a) failure to use appropriate referencing when using the words or ideas of other persons; (b) altering the language, paraphrasing, omitting, rearranging, or forming new combinations of words in an attempt to make the thoughts of another appear as your own.
- Other forms of academic misbehavior include, but are not limited to: (a) unauthorized use of resources, or any attempt to limit another student’s access to educational resources, or any attempt to alter equipment so as to lead to an...
incorrect answer for subsequent users; (b) enlisting the assistance of a substitute in the taking of examinations; (c) violating course rules as defined in the course syllabus or other written information provided to the student; (d) selling, buying or stealing all or part of an un-administered test or answers to the test; (e) changing or altering a grade on a test or other academic grade records.

Religious Observance Policy: Because of the extraordinary variety of religious affiliations of the University student body and staff, the Academic Calendar makes no provisions for religious holidays. However, it is University policy to respect the faith and religious obligations of the individual. Students with classes or examinations that conflict with their religious observances are expected to notify their instructors well in advance so that mutually agreeable alternatives may be worked out.
