The course is a cognitive and experiential study of social and psychological variables that influence the cross-cultural counseling relationship. Culturally relevant models of counseling theory and practice are explored. Emphasis will be placed on the social identities of race, ethnicity, gender, religion, ability, class, age and sexual orientation. Students are expected to comprehensively evaluate their own upbringing and belief systems, as well as a broad range of perspectives.

GOALS:

Multicultural counseling is a specialty area which commands a large body of theoretical and empirical material. Some of the literature may evoke emotionally charged reactions in students. Having the opportunity to hear from fellow students about how they balance professional literature with personal reactions is an important overall goal. Although most would agree that the acquisition of multicultural knowledge and skills is the desired outcome of multicultural coursework, the literature in multicultural counseling competencies recommends that effecting personal change with regard to racial, cultural, and diversity attitudes is an important long-range goal initiated by such a course. Consequently, the course contents are intended to raise multicultural awareness and help counselor-trainees learn how to form a multicultural counseling relationship.

METHOD OF TEACHING:

This class is being taught using direct instruction, inquiry-based learning, and a cooperative group assignment to facilitate and encourage student growth and learning.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

The course is designed to help students gain an understanding of culture, race and diversity, and its’ impact upon mental health, psychopathology, and psychotherapy. Students will develop an understanding of the major theoretical perspectives and concepts in social and cultural psychology of diversity. Students will be sensitized to racial, cultural, gender, age and sexual orientation differences between themselves and potential clients, and will learn how to overcome communication, values and worldview differences, which can block effective counselling and psychological interventions. In addition, students will develop an understanding of the impact of culture and diversity on the social, psychological and environmental development, as well as on the types of intervention and treatment services that are effective with diverse populations.
LEARNING OUTCOMES

In this course students will develop an understanding of the cultural context of relationships, issues and trends in a multicultural society including:

1. Develop knowledge in the area of multiculturalism, including characteristics, specific challenges, trends, strengths, and significant historical and current factors within and among diverse groups nationally and internationally. [II.G.2.a; II.G.3.e; CMHC: C.9; E.1; E.4; E.5; E.6; SC: E.2]

2. Increase cultural knowledge, self-awareness and awareness of culturally diverse populations through experiential learning. [II.G.2.b; II.G.2.e; CMHC: C.9; E.1; F.1; F.2]

3. Develop working knowledge of theories, skills and practices (including potential biases in assessment, diagnosis and treatment) of multicultural counseling, identity development and social justice in areas of specialization (i.e., clinical mental health, school counseling, etc.) [II.G.2.c; CMHC: C.9; E.3; F.3; I.2; K.4]

4. Develop multiculturally competencies regarding knowledge, skills and strategies for working with, and advocating for, diverse populations (individual, couple, family, group and community). [II.G.1.i; II.G.2.d; II.G.3.e; CMHC: C.9; D.4; D.5; E.1; E.3; E.4; K.4; SC: E.2]

5. Explore the nature of biases, prejudices, and processes of intentional and unintentional oppression, barriers (institutional and social) as well as discrimination, and learn the counselor’s role (including cultural self-awareness, social justice, advocacy and conflict resolution) in elimination of such behaviors that affect the growth, equality, access and success of clients and client systems. [II.G.1.i; II.G.2.e; II.G.2.f; CMHC: C.9; D.4; E.1; E.4; E.5; E.6; F.1; F.2; SC: E.2; E.4]

1. ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION: 20 points

   This course will involve lecture, discussion, and group activities. As such, it is learner centered. You will be expected to initiate and engage in discussions of the major topics assigned. This means that all readings and assignments must be completed as schedule. Attendance is mandatory and is required at all class sessions. Please note that Incomplete Grades will only be given under extreme circumstances.
   One absence= 18/20
   Two absences= 16/20
   Three absences= 10/20
   More than three absences= no attendance points given

2. CRITIQUE OF RESEARCH ARTICLE: 25 points each

   Each student will be responsible for critiques of two (1) research articles, which focuses on cultural and/or diversity issues in counseling and service delivery for the culturally diverse client. Students will select an empirical article (one that uses data, is peer reviewed, scholarly and has been published within the last ten years) in your area of interest. The article critique should be approximately 3 pages in length, excluding title page, abstract, and references. Article must be typed in the style presented by the American Psychological Association (APA), 6th edition publication. Outline for the article is listed below.

Include in your critique:

a. Introduction (including demographic information)
b. Purpose of the study
c. Summary of the study
d. Relevance of the study to the problem or research question
e. Applicability of the researcher's findings to providing interventions with racial, cultural and diverse clients.
f. Implications for counseling, psychology, etc.
g. Does the research make a contribution to the field of counseling?
h. Conclusion

DUE: September 25, 2017

6. QUIZ: 25 points October 16, 2017
Students will be given a quiz to determine how effectively they understand the major concepts that have been presented through their readings and from the lectures. The quiz will consist of 15 multiple choice questions.

7. INTERVIEW: 75 points
Each student will conduct an interview with someone who they believe to be culturally diverse and they will conduct a personal cultural assessment on themselves. A summary of the interview and the personal assessment will be detailed in a 6-10 page paper excluding title page, abstract, and references. The paper must also include empirical research regarding implications for counseling of the diverse group.

8. CLASS PRESENTATION: 55 points

Students, in groups of 3-4 members will work collaboratively and prepare a presentation on a diverse distinct population (e.g., African Americans, Asian Americans, Hispanic Americans, American Indians, Women or Gays/Lesbians/Bisexuals). Each group will be required to visit a community organization that works with or provides services to the population of choice. Upon completion, each group will submit a 4 page paper on providing appropriate counseling and intervention services to the population of choice. Each paper should provide a program evaluation addressing the following:

I. Cultural Considerations
   a. What are some of the traditional cultural values/world views of group members?
   b. What are the historical experiences of the group members?
   c. What are the unique issues to consider in dealing with mental health, psychopathology, and psychotherapy?

II. Potential Barriers
   a. What are the potential barriers to assisting clients and client system who identify with this population?
   b. How can these barriers be overcome?
   c. Are traditional theories, models and assessment instruments applicable?

III. Professional dispositions
   a. Issues related to the development of the therapeutic relationship?
   b. Specific ethical issues to be considered (e.g. awareness of own biases)?
   c. What strategies or interventions must be done to enhance the counseling process with this client population (e.g., specific techniques; use of various theories and approaches)?
   d. What traditional/culturally indigenous sources of strength, help giving and support can be utilized?

Class Presentation Format:

Electronic presentation materials should be utilized and shared with class. You may bring in any supporting materials such as assessment instruments, etc., and you may use any audio/visual aids, and printed hand-outs. Your job is to educate the audience (classmates) on your chosen topic. Creativity is encouraged. Please note that group projects are reflective of your ability to work as a treatment team. The ability to produce an organized and cohesive presentation will be reflected in your grade.Your presentation should not exceed 30 minutes

DUE: November 27, 2017 and December 4, 2017

4. FINAL EXAM: 100 points (December 11, 2017)

The final exam will be 50 multiple choice questions. All questions will come directly from the class lectures, presentations and/or readings in your textbook.

1. CHAPTER PRESENTATIONS: 50 POINTS (each)
   Each student will prepare a PowerPoint presentation of four (4) assigned chapters from the required reading text and present to the class. The presentation will be a thorough explanation of the chapter and will include your thoughts and conceptions. Presentation should communicate professional dispositions which correlate to counseling in a culturally diverse society.

   DUE: Per Schedule

   Due date: as assigned in class

2. RESEARCH PAPER: 100 POINTS
   Each student will write a 15-20 page research which focuses on cultural and/or diversity issues in counseling and service delivery for the culturally diverse client. The paper must be written in American Psychological Association (APA), 6th edition format and should be submitted with the intent of publishing in a scholarly journal.

Due date: December 4, 2017

ATTENDANCE:

Attendance at all scheduled classes is mandatory. Given the nature and pace of this course, your ability to perform adequately in the course will be highly correlated with attendance. Thus, superior grades for the course will tend to be the natural consequence for persons who attend regularly. It is the responsibility of the student to obtain materials and information regarding classes that were not attended.

GUIDELINES FOR MAXIMUM PERFORMANCE:

1. All formal papers are to be typed.

2. Use APA format for all formal papers:

   a. Cover page with relevant information, short abstract, body of paper should include an introductory paragraph, following paragraphs elaborate on points from introductory one, thus pursuing a central theme, then a summary paragraph. If you quote or paraphrase other material, a reference page must be included.

   b. Spelling and grammar important. All papers should reflect graduate level content and preparation. Careless preparation and/or inappropriate presentation will adversely affect grade for the assignment.

c. A few quotations and a little paraphrasing from experts permissible and desirable but your words and way of interpreting are essential. Plagiarism will result in severe disciplinary action. See below for specifics.

ACADEMIC DISHONESTY/PLAGIARISM:

The College of Education has a “zero tolerance” approach to plagiarism and other forms of academic dishonesty. (See Student Code of http://doso.wayne.edu/assets/codeofconduct.pdf). Plagiarism includes copying material (any more than 5 consecutive words) from outside texts or presenting outside information as if it were your own by not crediting authors through citations. It can be deliberate or unintended. Specific examples of academic dishonesty, including what constitutes plagiarism, can be found in the University’s Undergraduate Bulletin (http://bulletins.wayne.edu/ubk-output/index.html) and Graduate Catalog (http://www.bulletins.wayne.edu/GBK-Output/index.html) under the heading “Student Ethics.” These university policies are also included as a link on Blackboard within each course in which students are enrolled. It is every student’s responsibility to read these documents to be aware which actions are defined as plagiarism and academic dishonesty. Sanctions could include failure in the course involved, probation and expulsion, so students are advised to think carefully and thoroughly, ask for help from instructors if it is needed, and make smart decisions about their academic work.

DUE DATES:

It is expected that assignments will be turned in on the identified due dates. Only under exceptional circumstances will assignments be accepted if turned in late. When a due date must be revised due to special circumstance of the student, it will be the student’s responsibility to negotiate with the professor a revised due date. Students will be held accountable to the revised due date.

ENROLLMENT/WITHDRAWAL POLICY:

Beginning in Fall 2011, students must add classes no later than the end of the first week of classes. This includes online classes. Students may continue to drop classes (with full tuition cancellation) through the first two weeks of the term.

Students who withdraw from a course after the end of the 4th week of class will receive a grade of WP, WF, or WN,

- WP will be awarded if the student is passing the course (based on work due to date) at the time the withdrawal is requested
- WF will be awarded if the student is failing the course (based on work due to date) at the time the withdrawal is requested
- WN will be awarded if no materials have been submitted, and so there is no basis for a
Students must submit their withdrawal request on-line through Pipeline. The faculty member must approve the withdrawal request before it becomes final, and students should continue to attend class until they receive notification via email that the withdrawal has been approved. Beginning in Fall 2011, the last day to withdraw will be at the end of the 10th full week of classes. The withdrawal date for courses longer or shorter than the full 15-week terms will be adjusted proportionately.

ATTENTION STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES:

If you have a documented disability that requires accommodations, you will need to register with Student Disability Services (SDS) for coordination of your academic accommodations. The Student Disability Services (SDS) office is located at 1600 David Adamany Undergraduate Library in the Student Academic Success Services department. SDS telephone number is 313-577-1851 or 313-577-3365 (TDD only). Once you have your accommodations in place, I will be glad to meet with you privately during my office hours to discuss your special needs. Student Disability Services’ mission is to assist the university in creating an accessible community where students with disabilities have an equal opportunity to fully participate in their educational experience at Wayne State University.

Please be aware that a delay in getting SDS accommodation letters for the current semester may hinder the availability or facilitation of those accommodations in a timely manner. Therefore, it is in your best interest to get your accommodation letters as early in the semester as possible.

RELIGIOUS OBSERVANCE POLICY:

Because of the extraordinary variety of religious affiliations represented in the University student body and staff, the Wayne State University calendar makes no provision for religious holidays. It is University policy, however, to respect the faith and religious obligations of the individual. Students who find that their classes or examinations involve conflicts with their religious observances are expected to notify their instructors well in advance so that alternative arrangements as suitable as possible may be worked out.
