CLASS POLICY:

1. Students are expected to attend and actively participate in all classes.
2. Students are expected to have completed assigned readings prior to class.
3. Students are expected to adhere to assignment due dates. NO EXCEPTIONS.
4. All papers must be typed and comply with current APA standards for publications.
5. All papers should reflect graduate level content and preparation. Careless preparations and/or inappropriate presentations will adversely affect the grade for the assignment.
6. Plagiarism will result in severe disciplinary action. See student handbook prepared by Wayne State University for specifics.
7. Cell phone use, including texting, during class is strictly prohibited. Your grade will be negatively affected should you fail to abide this policy.

Attendance at all scheduled classes is mandatory. Unscheduled absences require written verification from a medical professional indicating student was under medical care and could not attend class. In cases where student is required by employer to miss a class, written verification, on company letterhead, must be submitted one week in advance with instructor’s approval. An unapproved absence results in the loss of one letter grade. Two unapproved absences result in a failing grade for the course. “I” and “Y” grades will not be given.
GUIDELINES FOR MAXIMUM PERFORMANCE:

1. All formal papers are to be typed.

2. Use APA format for all formal papers:
   a. Cover page with relevant information, short abstract, body of paper should include an introductory paragraph, following paragraphs elaborate on points from introductory one, thus pursuing a central theme, then a summary paragraph. If you quote or paraphrase other material, a reference page must be included.

   b. Spelling and grammar important. All papers should reflect graduate level content and preparation. Careless preparation and/or inappropriate presentation will adversely affect grade for the assignment.

   c. A few quotations and a little paraphrasing from experts permissible and desirable but your words and way of interpreting are essential. Plagiarism will result in severe disciplinary action. See student handbook prepared by Wayne State University for specifics.

   d. Your reactions and views from material read, and presenting your learning really wanted and crucial.

Case examples and illustrations to show understanding are important and make papers and/or presentations alive and desirable.

ACADEMIC DISHONESTY/PLAGIARISM:

The College of Education has a “zero tolerance” approach to plagiarism and other forms of academic dishonesty. (See Student Code of Conduct http://doso.wayne.edu/assets/student-code-of-conduct-brochure.pdf). Plagiarism includes copying material (any more than 5 consecutive words) from outside texts or presenting outside information as if it were your own by not crediting authors through citations. It can be deliberate or unintended. Specific examples of academic dishonesty, including what constitutes plagiarism, can be found in the University’s Undergraduate Bulletin (http://bulletins.wayne.edu/ubk-output/index.html) and Graduate Catalog (http://www.bulletins.wayne.edu/gbk-output/index.html) under the heading “Student Ethics.” These university policies are also included as a link on Blackboard within each course in which students are enrolled. It is every student’s responsibility to read these documents to be aware which actions are defined as plagiarism and academic dishonesty. Sanctions could include failure in the course involved, probation and expulsion, so students are advised to think carefully and thoroughly, ask for help from instructors if it is needed, and make smart decisions about their academic work.

ENROLLMENT/WITHDRAWAL POLICY:

Beginning in Fall 2011, students must add classes no later than the end of the first week of classes. This includes online classes. Students may continue to drop classes (with full tuition cancellation) through the first two weeks of the term.

Students who withdraw from a course after the end of the 4th week of class will receive a grade of WP, WF, or WN.

1. WP will be awarded if the student is passing the course (based on work due to date) at the time the withdrawal is requested
2. WF will be awarded if the student is failing the course (based on work due to date) at the time the withdrawal is requested
3. WN will be awarded if no materials have been submitted, and so there is no basis for a grade

Students must submit their withdrawal request on-line through Pipeline. The faculty member must approve the withdrawal request before it becomes final, and students should continue to attend class until they receive notification via email that the withdrawal has been approved. Beginning in Fall 2011, the last day to withdraw will be at the end of the 10th full week of classes. The withdrawal date for courses longer or shorter than the full 15-week terms will be adjusted proportionately.

ATTENTION STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES:

If you have a documented disability that requires accommodations, you will need to register with Student Disability Services (SDS) for coordination of your academic accommodations. The Student Disability Services (SDS) office is located at 1600 David Adamany Undergraduate Library in the Student Academic Success Services department. SDS telephone number is 313-577-1851 or 313-577-3365 (TDD only). Once you have your accommodations in place, I will be glad to meet with you privately during my office hours to discuss your special needs. Student Disability Services’ mission is to assist the university in creating an inclusive learning environment.
accessible community where students with disabilities have an equal opportunity to fully participate in their educational experience at Wayne State University.

Please be aware that a delay in getting SDS accommodation letters for the current semester may hinder the availability or facilitation of those accommodations in a timely manner. Therefore, it is in your best interest to get your accommodation letters as early in the semester as possible.

RELIGIOUS OBSERVANCE POLICY:

Because of the extraordinary variety of religious affiliations represented in the University student body and staff, the Wayne State University calendar makes no provision for religious holidays. It is University policy, however, to respect the faith and religious obligations of the individual. Students who find that their classes or examinations involve conflicts with their religious observances are expected to notify their instructors well in advance so that alternative arrangements as suitable as possible may be worked out.
