Course Description:  Case presentation of selected psychology clients for group/individual supervision.

Course Objectives:
1. Students will present a therapeutic case for group/individual consultation/supervision.
2. Students will provide consultation to colleagues on their case presentation.
3. Students will provide the instructor with documentation of internship activity.

Case Presentation Outline:
I. Client Information (use only first names to protect confidentiality)
   A. Behavioral observations
   B. Available test data
II. Significant History
   A. Relevant psycho-social history and information
   B. Presenting symptoms and complaints
   C. Diagnosis – all axes with criteria met
   D. Help that you are seeking
III. Case Material (transcript of a session by memory)
IV. Self Evaluation

Copies: Make a copy of your presentation for each member of your group.
Evaluation: Course evaluations will consist of the instructor's evaluation of the quality of the student's participation in class including attendance, consultative behavior with colleagues, and case presentation. Students will not be evaluated on effectiveness of their therapy with the client.
Graduation Requirements: Apply for graduation on-line, during the registration period of the semester you wish to graduate.
Licensure: See our website at http://tbf.coe.wayne.edu/edp/marriage/links.html for information. The Certification of Education form is submitted to me with a transcript (printed from pipeline). Registration: If you have a scholarship or a student loan, you may enroll in EDP 8320 for four hours each semester to delay triggering the count down to repay your loan. Register for EDP 8350 for one hour each semester. If you started your internship during the summer and will graduate in December, register for two hours of EDP 8350 and eight hours of EDP 8320 in the fall.
