

WAYNE STATE UNIVERSITY

LOOKING FOR HELP IN READING AND WRITING FOR YOUR CHILDREN?

The High Five Literacy Program at Wayne State University has openings in its literacy program open to students (1st – 8th grade). The program will provide FREE tutoring in reading and writing skills on Thursdays from October 2011 through April 2012. Tutors are graduate students completing a master's program in reading under the supervision of faculty in the Reading, Language, and Literature Program.

The dates for the program are as follows:

Beginning

October 2011 – April 2012

Times

5:15 pm – 6:30 pm

YOU WILL BE NOTIFIED IF YOUR CHILD IS ACCEPTED INTO THE PROGRAM!
APPLICANTS ACCEPTED INTO THE PROGRAM WILL BE CONTACTED BY PHONE WITH THE STARTING DATE.

Due to overwhelming responses, we will be unable to contact each parent of applicants. The program can accommodate a limited number of students, therefore, students will be selected on a first-come, first serve basis. Students who are not selected will be placed on a waiting list until the next opening is available for the 2011-2012 school year.

Sessions will be held at Wayne State University's (Downtown Detroit Location) College of Education in Room 30. Transportation to and from tutoring sessions is the responsibility of the student's parent or guardian.

To apply to the program, complete the following page and mail to: Wayne State University, College of Education, c/o Ms. Renee Konarzewski, 5425 Gullen Mall, 2 South, Detroit, MI 48202 or fax your application to 313.577.4091. If you have any questions please call Ms. Konarzewski at 313.577.1742, Monday - Friday 8:00 a.m. to 4:15 p.m. or leave a message for Dr. Arya at 313.577.1643.

NOTE: Attendance in the program on a regular basis will benefit both your child and the tutor. TWO (2) OR MORE ABSENCES WILL RESULT IN YOUR CHILD BEING WITHDRAWN FROM THE PROGRAM. IT IS THE PARENT OR GUARDIANS RESPONSIBILITY TO CALL 313.577.1742 OR 313.577.1643 AND REPORT YOUR CHILD WILL BE ABSENT.
